

Article by Kyle Powers

With the passing of the Inflation Reduction Act, the Senate has earmarked $80 billion specifically for equipping and arming the seventy eight thousand IRS auditors nationwide with the latest military hardware to help them combat the forces of the evil far right middle class and small business owners who have been hoarding the nation's wealth.

According to Treasury Department officials other uses of the funds will be to hire a wide range of specialists, such as IT professionals, forensic accountants, and indigenous trackers to hunt down tax evaders and “gut them like pigs”.

While on dinner date by our undercover investigator, IRS director Charles P. Rettig was quoted saying,

“All the auditors are going to be put through an intense boot camp, and’ll be trained by experts provided by my buddy Bill from Langley.

-Like from the CIA?

Yeah, the Director, Bill Burns, we golf together all the time.”